JP NORTHRUP
Financial Planner, Edward Jones Investments

Join financial planner JP Northrop – who just happens to be an actual chemist – discuss the chemical and pharmaceutical industries from the perspective of the American economy. While you're here, enjoy a tour of one of the Delaware Valley's newest breweries as we continue our annual series of exploring great breweries and distilleries. We also continue our networking partnership with ChemPharma and extend a warm welcome to our chemical engineering colleagues from the AIChE Delaware Valley Section to join us in a night of informal networking. Food will be provided, and beer will be served on a cash bar basis.
